

Human interest story of Upper falls When Born & Bayard were less than 5 yrs old (about 19), their parents took a trip up Grove Canyon in residence in a home - located (wagon box on runners) They put hay in bottom of box & home blankets over the hay. Kids were in wagon box.
They traveled up canyon. By the time they got to Upper falls, every one was freezing cold. "They had a Coleman to keep them warm but had no matches to light it."
Mr. & E. Bornard. Mr. E. Bornard of E. E. Bornard & light the lantern. gave them matches for the matches.
They were so grateful for the matches & survived the cold - and ride to Hollywood - their new home.
